SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1859.

Sale of Short Horn Cattle.

The entire herd of Durhams, comprising some forty head, owned by R. G. Corwin, Esq., was sold at auction on Wednesday last at the farm of the same owner, near the village of Lebanon, Ohio. The herd consisted of some of the most distinguished animals of the breed, among them the superb imported bull "Crusader," from the "Scottish Blue Bell," both having taken the first prize in their class at the sweepstakes at the Ohio State Fair in 1855 and 1856, and the first prize at the State Fair in Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri in 1858.

"Scottish Blue Bell," prior to her importation, took the first prize in England over the entire herd of the same breed, and was sold for $7,000. "Crusader" was sold for $10,000. The entire herd was sold for $100,000.

The three counties of Licking, Muskingum and Morgan were well represented at the sale, and were fortunate in securing some of the best of the herd.

For Mackinac, M. B. Robinson bought "Strawberry Matilda" and a bull calf six weeks old, for $1,200. J. F. Terry bought cow "Evelyn" for $1,200. J. F. Terry bought cow "Evelyn" for $1,200. J. F. Terry bought cow "Evelyn" for $1,200.

Supplement to Daily Press and Tribune.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1859.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Dr. Charles May is putting his recollections of travel in this country in a work entitled "Life and Liberty in America."

Hon. John A. Gilmer, Opposition member of the House of Representatives, from the Fifth District of North Carolina, has been nominated by acclamation, for re-election.

Hon. Vernet is going to be married, at the age of sixty-seven. The illustrious painter has gained the heart of a widow, Madame Marie Amelie Fuller, whose first husband was a M. de Bois Richoux.

It is said that T. F. Meagher has ended his editorial career with the Irish Free Press, of New York, which was started about three years ago. He is busily engaged on his Cross review work.

An Albany paper states that the property left by Mat. Peol is estimated at $15,000. He (Mr. Peol) was one of the most successful men in the country over produced. During the past four months his troupe has earned over $1,000 a week.

Dr. Abbott, the collector of the valuable gallery of Egyptian Antiquities, which for six years past has formed one of the prominent attractions of the Egyptian Museum, New York, died on the 20th of March, at a village near Cairo, in Egypt, aged forty-seven years.

The Governor of Maine has made the following appointments: Judge of Supreme Judicial Court: John Appleton, Bangor, re-appointed; Richard D. Rice, Augusta, re-appointed; Edward Kent, Bangor, vice J. Hathaway. Reporter of Judicial Decisions: Wales Hubbard, Wiscasset. State Prison Commissioner: Richard Tucker, Ellsworth. Harpur, Kennebec. Penitentiary Indian Agent: Samuel W. Hoskins, Bangor.

The friends of Washington Irving will be glad to hear that his health is now becoming quite settled. He made his first appearance in New York the other day for the first time in many months. Mr. Irving's illness has been the result of his long continued application, and had become so serious as to cause many fears as to the final result. He is now past 70 years of age.

The Waterbury (S. C.) Sun of the 27th ult., says: "On Sunday last, the Rev. Mr. Bollinger announced to his congregation the melancholy fact, that the Rev. Bishop Davis, of the Diocese of South Carolina, had almost entirely lost his sight. His only hope is by an operation for cataract."

The Norfolk Argus is gratified to learn that orders have been received to take a large number of additional hands in the navy yard. Of course it is an election is coming on this month in Virginia, and the Democracy is organized and demoralized in the State, and by throwing voters into Norfolk and the Gosport navy yard, a member of Congress may be saved from the wreck. As soon as the election is over, these workmen will be discharged again, for there is really no legalized work to be done there.

The Charleston Mercury, in a late review of political questions and parties, compresses into a nutshell "the true state of things." It says: "The Democratic party exists only in the South. It is no longer a national party. Why should we not accept the true state of things and act upon them. As a party, it is a Southern party, and nothing else. Why should it not turn its back upon the North, and act only for the South?"

The Democratic party exists only in the South. It is no longer a national party. Why should we not accept the true state of things and act upon them. As a party, it is a Southern party, and nothing else. Why should it not turn its back upon the North, and act only for the South?
